2 RISK FACTORS

THE VALUE OF INVESTMENTS CAN GO UP OR DOWN AND PAST PERFORMANCE IS NOT NECESSARILY INDICATIVE OF FUTURE PERFORMANCE.

AN INVESTMENT IN THE SHARES INVOLVES CERTAIN RISKS INCLUDING THOSE DESCRIBED BELOW. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER, WITH THEIR OWN FINANCIAL AND OTHER PROFESSIONAL ADVISERS, THE FOLLOWING RISK FACTORS AND OTHER INVESTMENT CONSIDERATIONS AS WELL AS ALL THE OTHER INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THE PROSPECTUS, OR INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE THEREIN, BEFORE DECIDING TO MAKE AN INVESTMENT IN THE SHARES. THE RISK FACTOR FIRST APPEARING UNDER EACH CATEGORY CONSTITUTES THAT RISK FACTOR THAT THE DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY HAVE ASSESSED TO BE, AT THE DATE OF THIS SECURITIES NOTE, THE MOST MATERIAL RISK FACTOR UNDER SUCH CATEGORY. IN MAKING THIS ASSESSMENT OF MATERIALITY, THE DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY HAVE EVALUATED THE COMBINATION OF: (I) THE PROBABILITY THAT A RISK FACTOR OCCURS; AND (II) THE EXPECTED MAGNITUDE OF THE ADVERSE EFFECT ON THE FINANCIAL CONDITION AND PERFORMANCE OF THE COMPANY AND ITS SECURITIES IF SUCH RISK FACTOR WERE TO MATERIALISE.

NEITHER THIS SECURITIES NOTE, NOR ANY OTHER PARTS OF THE PROSPECTUS, INCLUDING INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE THEREIN, OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION SUPPLIED IN CONNECTION WITH THE SHARES: (I) IS INTENDED TO PROVIDE THE BASIS OF ANY CREDIT EVALUATION OR OTHER EVALUATION; OR (II) SHOULD BE CONSIDERED AS A RECOMMENDATION BY THE COMPANY (OR ITS DIRECTORS), THE SPONSORS OR ANY OF THE AUTHORISED FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARIES, THAT ANY RECIPIENT OF THIS SECURITIES NOTE, OR ANY OTHER PART OF THE PROSPECTUS, OR INFORMATION INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE THEREIN, OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION SUPPLIED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROSPECTUS, OR ANY SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY, SHOULD PURCHASE ANY SHARES. ACCORDINGLY, PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD MAKE THEIR OWN INDEPENDENT EVALUATION OF ALL RISK FACTORS, AND SHOULD CONSIDER ALL OTHER SECTIONS IN THE PROSPECTUS.

2.1 Forward-looking statements and financial forecasts

This Securities Note contains statements that are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements”. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as the terms “believes”, “estimates”, “anticipates”, “expects”, “intends”, “may”, “will” or “should” or, in each case, their negative or other variations or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements relate to matters that are not historical facts. They appear in a number of places throughout the Prospectus, and documents incorporated therein by reference, and include statements regarding the intentions, beliefs or current expectations of the Company and/or the Directors concerning, amongst other things, the Company’s strategy and business plans, capital requirements, results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, the markets in which it operates and general market conditions.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and should therefore not be construed as such. The Company’s actual results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, and the development of its business may differ materially from the impression created by the forward-looking statements contained in the Prospectus. In addition, even if the results of operations, financial condition, and/or liquidity of the Company are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in the Prospectus, those results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods. Important factors that may cause these differences include, but are not limited to, those factors identified under this section 2 of this Securities Note and elsewhere in the Prospectus.

Potential investors are advised to read the Prospectus in its entirety and, in particular, all the risks set out in this section, for a review of the factors that could affect the Company’s future performance. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the events described in the forward-looking statements in this document may not occur.

All forward-looking statements contained in this document are made only as at the date hereof. Subject to applicable legal and regulatory obligations, the Company and its Directors expressly disclaim any obligations to update or revise any forward-looking statement contained herein to reflect any change in expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

2.2 Risks relating to the Shares

2.2.1 Suitability of investment in the Shares

An investment in the Shares may not be suitable for all recipients of the Prospectus and prospective investors are urged to consult an investment advisor licensed under the Investment Services Act (Cap. 370 of the laws of Malta) as to the suitability or otherwise of an investment in the Shares before making an investment decision.

An informed investment decision can only be made by investors after they have read and fully understood the risk factors associated with an investment in the Shares and the inherent risks associated with the Company’s business. In the event that an investor does not seek professional advice and/or does not read and fully understand the provisions of this Prospectus, there is a risk that such investor may acquire an investment which is not suitable for his or her risk profile.

2.2.2 No existing market for the Shares and an active trading market may not develop or be sustained

As at the date of this Prospectus, there has been no public trading market for the Shares within or outside Malta. Although the Company has applied for the Shares to be admitted to listing on the Official List and for trading to commence thereafter, the Company can give no assurance that an active trading market for the Shares will develop or, if developed, could be sustained following the closing of the Offer. In addition, the Offer Price for the Offer Shares has been determined by the Selling Shareholders and may not be indicative of prices that will prevail in the open market following completion of the Share Offer. Consequently, investors may not be able to sell the Shares at a price equal to or greater than the price they paid in the Offer.

2.2.3 Dividend payments risk

As further described in section 2.1.1 of the Registration Document, the Company conducts all of its operations through the Subsidiaries that generate the Group's operating income and cash flow. The Company has no direct operations or significant assets other than the share capital of its Subsidiaries and, for this reason, it relies on those entities for cash flows to pay dividends (if any) on the Shares. The ability of the Subsidiaries to make payments to the Company depends largely on their financial condition and ability to generate profits. In addition, because the Subsidiaries are separate and distinct legal entities, they will have no obligation to pay dividends or to lend or advance the Company funds and may be restricted from doing so by contract (including financing arrangements which they may enter into in the future).

In respect of the Company, the extent of any dividend distribution by the Company in the future, and the relevant timing and amount thereof, will depend upon, amongst other factors, the profit available for distribution for the year, the Directors' view on the prevailing market outlook, any debt servicing requirements, the cash flows of the Company, working capital requirements, the Board's view on current or future investments, and the requirements of the Act. In terms of Maltese law, a company may not make a distribution except out of profits available and if the Directors conclude it would not be in the best interests of the Company.

Consequently, there is a risk that the holders of the Shares may not receive any dividend income.

2.2.4 The issue of additional Shares and dilution

The Company has no current plans for an offering of new ordinary shares. However, in the future, the Group may seek to raise financing to fund future acquisitions and other group opportunities. The Group may, for such purposes and other purposes, issue additional equity or convertible equity securities. The Group may also make awards of Shares under share-incentive or share option plans in the future. As a result, existing holders of Shares may suffer dilution in their percentage ownership, or the market price of the Shares may be adversely affected as a result of an issue of additional shares in the market.

2.2.5 The sale of substantial amounts of such Shares in the secondary market

The Selling Shareholders are subject to restrictions on the sale and/or transfer of their respective holdings in the Company's issued share capital (as described in Section 5.5 of this Securities Note). The sale of a substantial number of Shares by the Selling Shareholders in the public market after the lock-in restrictions in the Lock-In Agreement expire or the perception that these sales may occur, may depress the market price of the Shares and could impair the Company's ability to raise capital through the issue of additional equity securities.

A downturn in the market price of the Shares due to an increased supply of Shares on the secondary market by the Selling Shareholders may make it more difficult for other Shareholders to sell Shares at a time and price that they deem appropriate, and could also impede the Company's ability to issue equity securities in the future.

2.2.6 Shares may be subject to market price volatility

The Offer Price of the Offer Shares is not indicative of the market price of the Shares following Admission. The market price of the Shares may be volatile and subject to wide fluctuations, including but not limited to, those referred to in these Risk Factors, as well as period-to-period variations in operating results or changes in revenue or profit estimates by the Group, industry participants or financial analysts. The market price could also be adversely affected by developments unrelated to the Group's operating performance, such as:

- prevailing economic conditions in Malta;
- subsequent changes in market interest rates which may adversely affect the value of the Shares;
- strategic actions by the Company or its competitors, such as mergers, acquisitions, partnerships and restructurings;
- speculation about the Group in the press or investment community;
- strategic actions by competitors (including acquisitions and restructurings);
- unfavourable press;
- and
- regulatory changes.

All or any of these factors could result in material fluctuations in the price of the Shares, which could lead to investors getting back less than they invested or a total loss of their investment.

2.2.7 Currency of Reference

A Shareholder will bear the risk of any adverse fluctuations in exchange rates between the currency of denomination of the Shares (€) and the Shareholder's currency of reference, if different. Such adverse fluctuations may impair the return of investment of the Shareholders in real terms after taking into account the relevant exchange rate.

2.2.8 Continuing obligations

After the Shares are admitted to trading on the Official List of the MSE, the Company must remain in compliance with certain requirements contained in, inter alia, the Capital Markets Rules. The Malta Financial Services Authority has the authority to suspend trading of the Shares if, inter alia, it comes to believe that such a suspension is required for the protection of investors or of the integrity or reputation of the market. Furthermore, the Malta Financial Services Authority may discontinue the listing of the Shares if, inter alia, it is satisfied that, owing to special circumstances, normal regular dealings in the Shares are no longer possible, or upon the request of the Company or the MSE. Any such trading suspensions or listing revocations/ discontinuations described above, could have a material adverse effect on the liquidity and value of the Shares.

2.2.9 Changes in Law

The Terms and Conditions are based on Maltese law in effect as at the date of this Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change in Maltese law or administrative practice after the date of this Prospectus.

2.2.10 Changes in tax laws

The tax treatment of Shareholders may be subject to changes in tax laws or practices in Malta. Any change in such tax laws may reduce the net return derived by Shareholders from an investment in the Company.

3 PERSONS RESPONSIBLE

All of the Directors of the Company, whose names appear under the sub-heading “The Board of Directors of the Company” in Section 16.1 of the Registration Document, accept responsibility for the information contained in this Securities Note. To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors of the Company, who have all taken reasonable care to ensure such is the case, the information contained in this Securities Note is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Directors of the Company accept responsibility accordingly.

All representations and other statements made in the Prospectus are made by the Company, and the Directors of the Company take sole responsibility for all such representations and statements. The Company’s advisers have advised and assisted the Company in the preparation of this document, but none make any representation or statement, unless otherwise expressly stated in the Prospectus, and each of them disclaims any responsibility for any representations and other statements made in the Prospectus.

3.1 Consent for Use of Prospectus

Consent required in connection with the use of the Prospectus during the Offer Period by the Authorised Financial Intermediaries:

For the purposes of any subscription for the Offer Shares through any of the Authorised Financial Intermediaries during the Offer Period, and any subsequent resale, placement or other offering of the Offer Shares by such Authorised Financial Intermediaries in circumstances where there is no exemption from the requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation, the Company consents to the use of this Prospectus (and accepts responsibility for the information contained therein) with respect to any such subsequent resale, placement or other offering of the Offer Shares, provided this is limited only:

- i. in respect of the Offer Shares subscribed for through Authorised Financial Intermediaries during the Offer Period;
- ii. to any resale or placement of the Offer Shares taking place in Malta; and
- iii. to any resale or placement of the Offer Shares taking place within the period of 60 days from the date of the Prospectus.

None of the Company, the Sponsor & Manager and Registrar or any of their respective advisers take any responsibility for any of the actions of any Authorised Financial Intermediary, including their compliance with applicable conduct of business rules or other local regulatory requirements or other securities law requirements in relation to a resale or placement of the Offer Shares.

Other than as set out above, neither the Company nor its advisers have authorised (nor do they authorise or consent to the use of this Prospectus in connection with) the making of any public offer of the Offer Shares by any person in any circumstances. Any such unauthorised offers are not made on behalf of the Company or its advisers and neither the Company nor its advisers have any responsibility or liability for the actions of any person making such offers.

Investors should enquire whether an intermediary is considered to be an Authorised Financial Intermediary in terms of the Prospectus. If the investor is in doubt as to whether it can rely on the Prospectus and, or who is responsible for its contents, it should obtain legal advice.

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or inconsistent with this Prospectus. If given or made, it must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Company or its advisers. The Company does not accept responsibility for any information not contained in this Prospectus.

In the event of a resale, placement or other offering of the Offer Shares by an Authorised Financial Intermediary, the Authorised Financial Intermediary shall be responsible to provide information to investors on the terms and conditions of the resale, placement or other offering at the time such is made.

Any resale, placement or other offering of the Offer Shares to an investor by an Authorised Financial Intermediary will be made in accordance with any terms and other arrangements in place between such Authorised Financial Intermediary and such investor, including as to price, allocations and settlement arrangements. Where such information is not contained in the Prospectus, it will be the responsibility of the relevant Authorised Financial Intermediary at the time of such resale, placement or other offering to provide the investor with that information and neither the Company nor its advisers have any responsibility or liability for such information.

Any Authorised Financial Intermediary using this Prospectus in connection with a resale, placement or other offering of the Offer Shares subsequent to the Share Offer shall, limitedly for the period of 60 days from the date of the Prospectus, publish on its website a notice to the effect that it is using this Prospectus for such resale, placement or other offering in accordance with the consent of the Company and the conditions attached thereto. The consent provided herein shall no longer apply following the lapse of such period.

Any new information with respect to financial intermediaries unknown at the time of this Securities Note will be made available by the Company through a company announcement which will be made available on the Company's website: www.computime.com.mt.

The following is an overview of the rights attaching to the Shares:

5.4.1 Dividends

The Shares carry the right to participate in any distribution of dividend declared by the Company pari passu with any and all other Shares in the Company. The Company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Directors. The Directors may from time to time pay to the Shareholders such interim dividends as appear to the Directors to be justified by the profits of the Company. The dividend policy of the Company is set out in Section 21 of the Registration Document.

Each Share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote for each share held at meetings of Shareholders. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall have one vote, and on a poll every Shareholder shall have one vote for each Share carrying voting rights of which he is the holder or for which he holds a valid proxy as the case may be. 5.4.3 Rights to share in assets in the event of liquidation

All holders of Shares shall rank "pari passu" upon any distribution of assets in a winding up.

5.4.4 Transferability & Restrictions

No minimum holding requirement is applicable once the Shares are admitted to listing on the Official List of the MSE.

Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Company or the CSD, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the Share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the CSD a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered, he shall testify his election by transferring the Share, or procuring the transfer of the Share, in favour of that person. A person becoming entitled to a Share/s by reason of the death of the holder thereof shall be entitled to the same dividends and other rights and advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share/s, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the Share/s, be entitled in respect of the Share/s to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

The authorisation is valid for a period of five (5) years and the Company in general meeting may by ordinary resolution renew this permission for further maximum periods of five (5) years each.

Subject to the provisions of article 88 of the Act, the Company in issuing and allotting new Shares:

- (a) shall not allot any new shares in the Company on any terms to any Person unless an offer has first been made to each existing Shareholder to allot to him at least on the same terms, a proportion of the new shares which is as nearly as practicable equal to the proportion in nominal value held by him of the aggregate shares in issue in the Company immediately prior to the new issue of shares; and
- (b) shall not allot any shares to any person who is not a Shareholder of the Company prior to the expiration of any period of offer made to existing Shareholder in terms of paragraph (a) above or prior to a negative or positive reply from all such Shareholders in respect of such offer. Any such shares not subscribed to by the existing Shareholders pursuant to paragraph (a) above may be offered for subscription to the general public under the same or other conditions which however cannot be more favourable to the public than an offer made under paragraph (a) above

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any right of pre-emption as referred to in the paragraphs above may be restricted or withdrawn by (i) an extraordinary resolution of the general meeting or (ii) the board, provided that the board is authorised to issue shares in accordance with Article 85 of the Act and for so long as the board remains so authorised.

The right of pre-emption does not apply to a particular allotment of shares if there are, or are to be, wholly or partly paid up otherwise than in cash.

5.4.6 Mandatory Takeover Bids, Squeeze-Out and Sell-Out Rights

Chapter 11 of the Capital Markets Rules, implementing the relevant provisions of Directive 2004/25/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004, regulates the acquisition by a person, or persons acting in concert, of the control of a company and provides specific rules on takeover bids and the squeeze-out and sell-out mechanisms.

A brief description of the Shareholders' rights and obligations in the case of mandatory takeover bids and/or squeeze-out or sell-out rules in relation to the Shares as set out in Chapter 11 of the Capital Markets Rules is set out below. Chapter 11 of the Capital Markets Rules may be subject to changes following the publication of this Securities Note. Investors should consult with their advisers as to the implications of such changes as and when amendments to Chapter 11 of the Capital Markets Rules take effect.

Mandatory Bids

Rule 11.8 of the Capital Markets Rules provides that where a person acquires a controlling interest as a result of his own acquisition or the acquisition by persons acting in concert with him, such a person (or where a controlling interest is acquired as a result of persons acting in concert, the person having the highest percentage of voting rights) is required to make an offer to all the holders of the shares in that company for all of their holdings at the equitable price. The equitable price to be paid for the shares subject of the mandatory bid is the highest price determined by a set of criteria set out in Rule 11.39 of the Capital Markets Rules. By way of consideration the person making the mandatory bid may offer securities, cash or a combination of both, provided that a cash consideration must be offered as an alternative in all cases. The Capital Markets Rules contain exemptions to the obligation to launch a mandatory bid.

For the purposes of this paragraph, "Controlling Interest" means the holding by a person or the holding by persons acting in concert with him which, when added to any existing holdings of those securities of the person and/or to holdings of those securities of persons acting in concert with him, directly or indirectly give him 50% plus one of the voting rights of a Company.

Squeeze-Out Rights

Where a person makes a bid (whether voluntary or mandatory) (the "Offeror") in terms of the Capital Markets Rules and following such bid, holds securities representing not less 90% of the capital carrying voting rights and 90% of the voting rights in the company, or where, following acceptance of the bid, the Offeror has acquired or has firmly contracted to acquire securities representing not less than 90% of the Offeree Company's capital carrying voting rights and ninety per cent (90%) of the voting rights comprised in the bid, the Offeror has the right to require all the holders of the remaining securities to sell him those securities at a fair price for cash.

Following a voluntary bid, the consideration offered in the bid is presumed to be fair where, through acceptance of the bid, the Offeror has acquired securities representing not less than 90% of the company's capital carrying voting rights. Following a mandatory bid, the consideration offered is presumed to be fair.

Sell-Out Rights

Where following a bid (whether voluntary or mandatory) the Offeror has not confirmed that it will be exercising its right of squeeze-out in terms of the Capital Markets Rules, the holders of remaining securities may require the Offeror to buy their securities from them at a fair price for cash.

Following a voluntary bid, the consideration offered in the bid is presumed to be fair where, through acceptance of the bid, the Offeror has acquired securities representing not less than 90% of the company's capital carrying voting rights. Following a mandatory bid, the consideration offered is presumed to be fair.

5.4.7 Conversion and redemption of shares

In terms of the Articles of Association and the relevant provisions of the Act, the Company may by extraordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and re-convert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination. Further details on the rights of conversion are included in Article 8.1 of the Articles of Association. The Shares are not redeemable or convertible into any other form of security.

5.5 Lock-in arrangements

Pursuant to the Lock-In Agreement, the Selling Shareholders (except the Corporate Selling Shareholders) (the "Lock-In Shareholders") undertook, for a period of 24 months from the date when the Shares are admitted to listing on the Official List, not to offer, sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase or otherwise transfer, assign or dispose of, any of the Shares in the Company retained by them as at the date of closing of the Share Offer (the "Lock-In Shares"). The undertaking constituting the lock-in shall subsist notwithstanding any provisions of the Act and the Memorandum and Articles of Association that would otherwise have permitted such transfer, assignment or disposal.

As an exception to the restrictions on transferability of the Lock-In Shares, the Lock-In Shareholders shall be released from the undertaking and restrictions set out in the Lock-In Agreement if any of the following circumstances were to occur:

- (i) in the event of the demise of a Lock-In Shareholder, the transfer of his shares by the testate or intestate succession;
- (ii) in the event of any fresh issue and allotment of ordinary shares made by the Company, whether or not that Lock-In Shareholder availed himself of his right to participate in such issue and allotment, if such issue and allotment operates to reduce the respective Lock-In Shareholder's shareholding in the Company below 10%;
- (iii) pursuant to the enforcement of a pledge of shares granted in favour of a credit institution licensed in Malta or holding an equivalent authorisation in a member state of the European Union or the European Economic Area;
- (iv) in the event of a merger or amalgamation of the Company with any other body corporate in accordance with the provisions of the Act;
- (v) in the event of the sale, transfer or issuance of ordinary shares in the Company to any one person (other than any of the Shareholders) or to persons acting in concert (directly or indirectly) with such person, if after such sale, transfer or issuance such other person or persons, as the case may be, whether by aggregation with its/their existing holding of ordinary shares in the Company or otherwise, would hold more than 10% of the shares having voting rights in the Company or would have the ability to appointment a majority of the board of directors of the Company or would otherwise have the ability to exercise management and control over the Company;
- (vi) in the event of the division of the Company or the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the Company; or
- (vii) in the event of the transfer of shares pursuant to a court order enforceable in Malta.

For the purposes of (v) above, the term "acting in concert" shall mean any person who cooperates with another, on the basis of an agreement, either express or tacit, either oral or written aimed at acquiring control of the Company. Subsidiary undertakings of any person so cooperating shall be deemed to be persons acting in concert with that other person and with each other.

5.6 Terms and conditions of the Share Offer

5.6.1 Application and Method of Payment:

5.6.2 Registration, Replacement, Transfer and Exchange:

1. There will be entered in such electronic register the names, addresses, identity card numbers (in the case of natural persons), registration numbers and LEI (in the case of companies) and MSE account numbers of the Shareholders and particulars of the Offer Shares held by them respectively, and the Shareholders shall have, at all reasonable times during business hours, access to the register of Shareholders held at the CSD for the purpose of inspecting information held on their respective account.
2. Statements of holdings and /or registration advices may be issued by the CSD upon a request by a Shareholder, or otherwise accessed via the e-portfolio service offering of the CSD, as applicable. To this extent, the Shareholders are expected to liaise directly with the CSD on this matter.
3. Shares may be transferred only in whole in accordance with the rules and procedures applicable from time to time in respect of the Official List of the MSE.
4. All transfers and transmissions are subject in all cases to any pledge (duly constituted) of the Shares and to any applicable laws and regulations.
5. Applicants who opt to subscribe for the online e-portfolio by ticking the appropriate box on the Application will be registered by the CSD for the online e-portfolio facility and will receive by mail at their registered address a handle code to activate the new e-portfolio login. The Shareholder's statement of holdings evidencing entitlement to Shares held in the register kept by the CSD and registration advices evidencing movements in such register will be available through the said e-portfolio facility on <https://eportfolio.borzamalta.com.mt/>. 5.6.4 Overseas Investors

The Share Offer is being made in Malta. The Share Offer is not being made to persons resident in and who are citizens of, or who have a registered address in, countries other than Malta. No person downloading a copy of the Prospectus (or part thereof) or any Application in any territory other than Malta, may treat the same as constituting an invitation or offer to him/her, nor should he/she in any event deal with the Application unless, in the relevant territory, such an invitation or offer could lawfully be made to him/her or the Application could lawfully be used or dealt with without contravention of any legal or regulatory requirements. Having considered the circumstances, the Company has formed the view (due to the onerous requirements involved in the registration of this Prospectus in any territory other than Malta and/or compliance with the relevant legal or regulatory requirements) not to accept completed Applications from investors residing in or citizens of a country other than Malta, except where, inter alia, in the absolute discretion of the Company, it is satisfied that such action would not result in a contravention of any applicable legal or regulatory requirement in the relevant jurisdiction.

5.6.5 Refunds

In the event that, following the Offer Period, and as at the date of allocation, less than at least 25% of the Shares shall be held in the hands of the public in terms of the Capital Markets Rules, all proceeds received from Applicants shall be refunded in full, without interest, through the Authorised Financial Intermediary or the Registrar, as the case may be.

In the event that, following the Offer Period, total subscription for Offer Shares exceeds the amount of 22,987,600 Shares (equivalent to the total amount of Offer Shares available for subscription pursuant to the Share Offer), and an Applicant has not been allocated any Offer Shares or has been allocated a number of Offer Shares which is less than the number applied for, the Applicant shall receive a full refund or, as the case may be, the balance of the price of the Offer Shares applied for but not allocated, without interest, by credit transfer to such account indicated in the Application, at the Applicant's sole risk within five (5) Business Days from the date of announcement of basis of acceptance.

The Company shall not be responsible for any charges, loss or delay arising in connection with such direct credit transfer.

5.6.6 Pricing

The Offer Price for the Offer Shares has been fixed by the Selling Shareholders at €0.45 per Offer Share. If the Company is required to publish any supplementary prospectus in accordance with the Prospectus Regulation and/or the Capital Markets Rules at any time before Admission, Applicants who have applied for Offer Shares shall have two Business Days following the publication of the relevant supplement to the Prospectus during which they can withdraw their Application to acquire Offer Shares in its entirety.

The right to withdraw an Application to acquire Offer Shares in these circumstances will be available to all investors under the Share Offer. If the Application is not withdrawn within the stipulated period, any Application for Offer Shares under the Offer will remain valid and binding. Details of how to withdraw an Application will be made available in the context of the aforesaid if and when a supplement to the prospectus is published.

Save for the undertaking by HSBC Bank Funds SICAV p.l.c. to purchase more than 5% of the issued share capital of the Company pursuant to a placement agreement entered into with the Company and the Selling Shareholders, the Company does not have knowledge as to whether any single investor has the intention of participating in the Share Offer by acquiring more than five per cent (5%) of the issued share capital of the Company.

The Selling Shareholders have entered into Placement Agreements with a number of institutional investors and other investors pursuant to which the Selling Shareholders have bound themselves to allocate such amount of Offer Shares as specified in the relevant Placement Agreement to such investors at the Placement Discounted Offer Price. Payment for the Offer Shares so subscribed for must be received by the Registrar in cleared funds on or by the Placement Date; and

The registration advice and other documents and any monies returnable to Applicants may be retained pending clearance of the remittance and any verification of identity as required by the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (Cap. 373 of the laws of Malta) and regulations made thereunder. Such monies will not bear interest while retained as aforesaid.

Dealings in the Offer Shares shall not commence prior to admission to trading of the Shares by the MSE or prior to the said notification.

5.8 Placement Agreements

The Selling Shareholders, together with the Company, have entered into Placement Agreements with institutional and other investors pursuant to which the Selling Shareholders bound themselves to sell and transfer and the said investors bound themselves to subscribe to and acquire such number of Offer Shares as indicated in their respective agreement(s) at the Placement Discounted Offer Price.

In terms of each Placement Agreement, the Selling Shareholders are bound to allocate such amount of Offer Shares as specified in the relevant Placement Agreement, to such institutional investors and other investors, who in turn are bound to subscribe to such amount of Offer Shares, subject to, among other things, approval by the MFSA of this Prospectus and the Shares being admitted to the Official List of the MSE.

Each Placement Agreement, which is subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Prospectus, is binding on all parties thereto with effect from the relevant Placement Agreement date, subject to the Registrar receiving all subscription proceeds in cleared funds on or by the Placement Date.

5.9 Intermediaries' Offer

The remaining balance of 14,315,668 Offer Shares not subscribed to through Placement Agreements with institutional investors and other investors, is being made available for subscription during the Offer Period by all Authorised Financial Intermediaries participating in the Intermediaries' Offer as follows:

- (a) the Preferred Applicants' Reserved Amount has been reserved by the Selling Shareholders for Preferred Applicants;
- (b) the remaining balance of 13,315,668 Offer Shares and any Offer Shares which are not subscribed to by Preferred Applicants in accordance with (a) above will be made available to the Authorised Financial Intermediaries participating in the Intermediaries' Offer on behalf of all Applicants that are not Preferred Applicants, with any unutilised portion of such Offer Shares made available to institutional investors and other investors.

For the purposes of (b), the Selling Shareholders shall enter into conditional subscription agreements with each of the participating Authorised Financial Intermediaries for the subscription of Offer Shares, whereby the Selling Shareholders shall conditionally bind themselves to allocate the Offer Shares to the Authorised Financial Intermediaries in accordance with the terms of such subscription agreements and the allocation policy to be adopted by the Selling Shareholders (together with the Company).

In terms of each subscription agreement to be entered into with an Authorised Financial Intermediary, the Selling Shareholders will conditionally bind themselves to sell, and each Authorised Financial Intermediary will conditionally bind itself to purchase on its own account or on the account of its underlying clients, such number of Offer Shares specified in the relevant subscription agreement, subject to, amongst other things, the Offer Shares being admitted to the Official List of the MSE. Authorised Financial Intermediaries shall be entitled to distribute any portion of the Offer Shares subscribed to their underlying clients upon commencement of trading or to complete a data file (as provided by the Registrar) representing the amount being allocated to underlying clients in terms of the respective subscription agreement by latest 29 November 2024.

Each subscription agreement will become binding on each of the Selling Shareholders and the relevant Authorised Financial Intermediary upon signing, subject to receipt by the Registrar of all subscription proceeds in cleared funds on delivery of the signed subscription agreement. Preferred Applicants may apply for Offer Shares by submitting a Preferred Applicant Application Form to any Authorised Financial Intermediary. Preferred Applicant Application Forms must be accompanied by the full payment due for the Offer Shares applied for.

5.10 Allocation Policy

The Selling Shareholders, together with the Company, shall allocate the Offer Shares on the basis of the following allocation policy and order of priority:

- I. an amount of 8,671,932 Offer Shares shall be allocated to institutional investors and other investors pursuant to Placement Agreements entered into with the Selling Shareholders and the Company;
- II. the remaining balance of 14,315,668 Offer Shares available for subscription as part of the Intermediaries' Offer shall be allocated as follows:
 - a) a maximum number of up to 1,000,000 Offer Shares shall be allocated to Preferred Applicants in accordance with an allocation policy to be determined by the Selling Shareholders and the Company;
 - b) the remaining balance of 13,315,668 Offer Shares, and any Offer Shares which are not subscribed to by Preferred Applicants in accordance with (a) above, shall be allocated to Authorised Financial Intermediaries participating in the Intermediaries' Offer on behalf of all Applicants that are not Preferred Applicants in accordance with the allocation policy to be determined by the Company and the Selling Shareholders.

In the event that the aggregate value of Offer Shares applied for by Authorised Financial Intermediaries by way of the Intermediaries' Offer (including any balance of Offer Shares reserved for and not subscribed for by the institutional investors and other investors pursuant to the Placement Agreements), remains in excess of the aggregate amount of Offer Shares, available for subscription, the Offer Shares available for subscription shall be allocated in accordance with the allocation policy to be determined by the Company and the Selling Shareholders.

The allocation policy adopted by the Selling Shareholders (together with the Company) shall follow the following principles:

- (a) the Offer Shares shall be allocated according to the order of priority set out above;
- (b) as at the date of allocation, at least 25% of the Shares shall be held, as at the date of allocation, in the hands of the public in terms of the Capital Markets Rules; and
- (c) no Applicant shall be permitted to acquire in the aggregate (whether pursuant to Placement Agreements and/or pursuant to the Intermediaries' Offer), directly or indirectly, such number of Shares equivalent to 10% or more of the issued share capital of the Company.

The Selling Shareholders, together with the Company, will endeavour to ensure, through the allocation policy to be adopted, that there will be a sufficiently dispersed shareholder base to facilitate, as far as possible, an active secondary market in the Shares.

5.11 Shares in public hands

In the event that, following the Offer Period, as at the date of allocation, at least 25% of the Shares are not in the hands of the public in terms of Capital Markets Rules: (a) no transfer of Offer Shares will be made; (b) for the purposes of the Offer, the transfer of the Offer Shares shall be deemed not to have been accepted by the Selling Shareholders; and (c) all proceeds received from Applicants shall be refunded, without interest, through the Authorised Financial Intermediary or the Registrar, as the case may be.

6 TAXATION

6.1 General

Investors and prospective investors are urged to seek professional advice as regards both Maltese and any foreign tax legislation which may be applicable to them in respect of the Shares, including their acquisition, holding, disposal as well as any income / gains derived therefrom or made on their disposal, and, or the distribution and payment of dividends or other distributions on the Shares. The following information of the anticipated tax treatment applicable to investors is applicable only in so far as taxation in Malta is concerned as at the date of this Securities Note. This information, which does not constitute legal or tax advice and does not purport to be exhaustive, refers only to the Shareholders who do not deal in securities in the course of their trading activity of business.

The information below is based on an interpretation of tax law and practice relative to the applicable legislation as known to the Company as at the date of this Securities Note in respect of a subject on which no official guidelines exist. Shareholders are reminded that tax law and practice and their interpretation on the subject matter referred to in the preceding paragraph, as well as the levels of tax, may change from time to time. This information is being given solely as a general guide. The precise implications for Shareholders will depend, among other things, on their particular individual circumstances and on the classification of the Shares from a Maltese tax perspective, and thus professional advice in this respect should be sought accordingly.

6.1.1 Taxation of the Company

The Company, being a Maltese incorporated company, is considered tax resident and domiciled in Malta for Maltese income tax purposes and is therefore subject to tax in Malta on its world-wide income and gains at the standard corporate tax rate of 35%. Certain exemptions or low tax rates may apply in respect of particular sources of income or capital gains.

6.1.2 Tax upon acquisition of the Shares

Following the admission to listing of the Shares on the Official List, the acquisition of the Shares in the Company should not trigger any Maltese income tax liability.

6.1.3 Tax on Dividends

In general, distributions of dividends from the profits of the Company to its shareholders should not be subject to any further tax in Malta (whether by way of withholding or otherwise), subject to certain conditions.

However, the Company is obliged to withhold tax at the rate of 15% upon a distribution out of certain distributable profits (which were not taxed at the level of the Company and allocated to what is referred to as its 'Untaxed Account') to a Shareholder who is:

- i. a person resident in Malta (other than a company); or
- ii. a non-resident person (including a non-resident company) who is owned and controlled by, directly or indirectly, or who acts on behalf of, an individual who is ordinarily resident and domiciled in Malta; or
- iii. a trustee of a trust where the beneficiaries of such trust are persons referred to in (i) and (ii) above; or
- iv. an individual who is a national of the EU / EEA (and his or her spouse where applicable), in specific circumstances referred to in the Maltese Income Tax Act (Cap. 123 of the laws of Malta), when such individual applies the tax rates applicable to Maltese-resident individuals.

The Shareholder may in certain circumstances opt to declare the gross dividend distributed thereto from the 'Untaxed Account' in his or her individual Maltese income tax return and claim a refund of the difference between the 15% withholding tax and the personal tax rate applicable to the individual Shareholder (if the personal tax rate applicable to the Shareholder is less than 15%).

Under the full imputation system, the Shareholder may be entitled to claim a full imputation refund of the tax paid by the Company distributing the dividend from the other qualifying tax accounts (other than the 'Untaxed Account' and the 'Final Tax Account'). This said, in certain circumstances, the amount of dividend that may be declared by an individual Shareholder in his or her individual Maltese income tax return and for which a credit for the tax paid at the level of the Company may be claimed, may be limited.

Full imputation tax refunds cannot be claimed on profits on which tax for which the full imputation refund is being claimed by the Shareholder has been relieved at the level of the Company by way of certain credits and / or deductions.

6.1.4 Tax on Capital Gains

In terms of Income Tax Act, Maltese income tax should be chargeable on any capital gains arising from the transfer of a finite list of capital assets including “securities” which are defined as, including, “shares and stocks and such like instrument that participate in any way in the profits of the company and whose return is not limited to a fixed rate of return”.

In terms of Article 5(6)(b) of the Income Tax Act, any gains derived on a transfer of shares listed on a stock exchange recognised by the Commissioner, should be exempt from income tax to the extent that such shares are held as capital assets by the Shareholder.

Consequently, in accordance with the current Maltese income tax legislation, if and for as long as the Shares which are subject to this Securities Note are listed on a stock exchange recognised by the Commissioner for Tax & Customs, such as is the Malta Stock Exchange, and such Shares are held by the Shareholders as capital assets, no tax on capital gains is payable in Malta on any transfer of these Shares.

Furthermore, certain other exemptions from Maltese income tax may be applicable on the transfer of the Shares as specified in Article 12 of the Income Tax Act. Such exemptions include capital gains derived by a Shareholder, who is not resident in Malta, on a transfer of shares in the Company to the extent that:

- the beneficial owner of the gains is a person not resident in Malta; and
- such beneficial owner is not owned and controlled by, directly or indirectly, nor acts on behalf of an individual or individuals who are ordinarily resident and domiciled in Malta; and
- the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, immovable property situated in Malta or real rights thereon.

6.1.5 Duty on Documents and Transfers

In terms of the Duty on Documents and Transfers Act (Cap. 364 of the laws of Malta), Maltese stamp duty should only be chargeable on a finite list of documents and transfers including the transfer of marketable securities, including rights thereon.

A marketable security is defined in the said legislation as “a holding of share capital in any company and any document representing the same”. Having said this, in terms of Article 50 of the Financial Markets Act (Cap. 345 of the laws of Malta), the transfer of shares which are listed on a regulated market should be exempt from duty. Consequently, should the Shares be listed on the Malta Stock Exchange (being a regulated Market), no Maltese duty should be payable on the transfer of such shares.

6.2 Exchange of Information

In terms of applicable Maltese legislation, the Company and/or its agent may be required to collect and forward certain information (including, but not limited to, information regarding payments made to certain Shareholders) to the Maltese Commissioner for Tax & Customs. The Commissioner for Tax & Customs will or may, in turn, automatically or on request, forward the information to other relevant tax authorities subject to certain conditions.

6.3 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act

In terms of US tax rules, referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”), 30% withholding tax may be imposed on certain payments to a foreign financial institution (“FFI”) if that FFI is not compliant with FATCA. FATCA generally imposes a reporting regime and, in some cases, withholding requirements. The withholding tax could apply to payments to the Company that constitute interest, dividends and other types of income from US sources (such as dividends paid by a US corporation) and proceeds received from the sale or disposition of assets that give rise to US source dividend or interest payments. The United States has entered into an Intergovernmental Agreement (“IGA”) with Malta to facilitate FATCA compliance and reporting.

Under the IGA and the Maltese legislation implementing it, the Company may be required to report to the Maltese tax authorities certain information about US investors (including indirect investments held through certain passive investment entities) as well as non-US financial institutions that do not comply with FATCA. Such information would be onward reported by the Maltese tax authorities to the US Internal Revenue Service.

Financial account information in respect of holders of the Shares could fall within the scope of FATCA and they may therefore be subject to reporting obligations. In order to comply with its FATCA obligations, if any, the Company may be required to obtain certain information, forms and other documentation on the Shareholders to report information on reportable accounts to the Commissioner for Tax & Customs, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, which will in turn report this information to the Internal Revenue Service in the U.S.

The Company reserves the right to request any information and/or documentation required, in respect of any financial account, in order to comply with the obligations imposed under FATCA and any referring legislation. In the case of failure to provide satisfactory documentation and/or information, the Company may take such action as it thinks fit, including without limitation, the closure of the financial account.

Shareholders in the Company should consult their own tax advisors regarding the FATCA requirements with respect to their own particular circumstances.

6.4 The Common Reporting Standard

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) has developed a global framework, commonly known as the Common Reporting Standard (“CRS”) for the identification and timely reporting of certain financial information on individuals, and controlling persons of certain entities, who hold financial accounts with financial institutions of participating jurisdictions in order to increase tax transparency and cooperation between tax administrations. Numerous jurisdictions, including Malta, have signed the OECD multilateral competent authority agreement, which is a multilateral agreement outlining the framework to automatically exchange certain financial and personal information as set out within CRS.

So as to introduce an extended automatic exchange of information regime in accordance with the global standard released by the OECD, CRS has also been adopted in the EU through the implementation of Council Directive 2014/107/EU of 9 December 2014 amending Directive 2011/16/EU as regards mandatory automatic exchange of tax information in the field of taxation. Under the said Directive and the Maltese legislation implementing it, the Company may be required to identify and annually report to the Commissioner for Tax & Customs financial accounts held by a reportable person. Financial information relating to Shares and the holders thereof may fall within the purview of CRS and may be subject to reporting and information exchange provisions.

Shareholders may be required to provide certain information and certifications to the financial institutions, in order to satisfy their obligations under CRS. Certain confidential information in relation to the Shareholders and/or other reportable persons may be reported to the Commissioner for Tax & Customs and automatically exchanged pursuant to these arrangements with the tax administrations of other participating jurisdictions.

Shareholders should consult their professional advisers on the possible tax and other consequences with respect to the implementation of the CRS. Not complying with the CRS rules may give rise to certain fines or closure of financial accounts.

THE ABOVE INFORMATION IS BASED ON MALTESE TAX LAW AND PRACTICE APPLICABLE AS AT THE DATE OF THE PROSPECTUS. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE CAUTIONED THAT TAX LAW AND PRACTICE AND THE LEVELS OF TAX RELATING TO THE COMPANY AND ITS SHAREHOLDERS MAY CHANGE FROM TIME TO TIME. THE TAX LEGISLATION OF A PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR’S JURISDICTION AND MALTESE LAW MAY HAVE AN IMPACT ON THE NET INCOME RECEIVED FROM THE SHARES. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS ARE THEREFORE URGED TO SEEK PROFESSIONAL ADVICE AS REGARDS BOTH MALTESE AND FOREIGN TAX LEGISLATION APPLICABLE TO THE ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSAL OF THE SHARES, AS WELL AS DIVIDEND PAYMENTS MADE BY THE COMPANY. THIS INFORMATION, WHICH DOES NOT CONSTITUTE LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE, REFERS ONLY TO INVESTORS WHO DO NOT DEAL IN SECURITIES IN THE COURSE OF THEIR NORMAL TRADING ACTIVITY.

Notes on how to complete this Application Form and other information

The following notes are to be read in conjunction with the Prospectus dated 31 October 2024 regulating the Share Offer

1. This Application is governed by the Terms and Conditions of the Share Offer contained in Section 5 of the Securities Note dated 31 October 2024. Capitalised terms not defined herein shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning ascribed to them in the Prospectus.
2. The Application Form is to be completed in BLOCK LETTERS. Applicants who are non-residents in Malta for tax purposes, must indicate their passport number in Panel A.
3. Preferred Applicants (as defined in the Prospectus) as at the date of the Prospectus are to insert full personal details in Panel A (including MSE account number which is mandatory). If the applicant does not have an MSE account, he/she has to apply for one through any of the Authorised Financial Intermediaries listed in Annex I of the Securities Note. In the case of an Application by more than one person (including husband and wife) full details of all individuals must be given in Panels A and B but the person whose name appears in Panel A shall, for all intents and purposes, be deemed to be the registered holder of the Offer Shares (vide note 6 below). Applications by more than two persons are to use an addendum to the Application Form.

Upon submission of an Application Form, Applicants who opt to have an online e-portfolio facility (by marking the relative box in Panel A), will receive by mail at their registered address a handle code to activate the issuer e-portfolio login. Registration for the e-portfolio facility requires a mobile number to be provided on the Application Form. The shareholder's statement of holdings evidencing entitlement to the Offer Shares held in the register kept by the central securities depository operated by the MSE ("CSD") and registration advices evidencing movements in such register will be available through the said e-portfolio facility on <https://eportfolio.borzamalta.com.mt/>. Further details on the e-portfolio may be found on <https://eportfolio.borzamalta.com.mt/help>.

4. Applications in the name and for the benefit of minors shall be allowed provided that the applicant already holds an account with the MSE. Any Offer Shares allocated pursuant to such an Application shall be registered in the name of the minor, with dividend, if any, payable to the parents or legal guardian/s signing the Application Form until such time as the minor attains the age of eighteen (18) years, following which all dividends, if any, shall be payable directly to the registered holder, provided that the Company has been duly notified in writing of the fact that the minor has attained the age of eighteen (18) years. Panel C must be inserted with full details of the parents/legal guardians.
5. In the case of a body corporate, a valid Legal Entity Identifier ("LEI") needs to be inserted in Panel A. Failure to include a valid LEI code, will result in the Application being cancelled by the Registrar. Applications must be signed by duly authorised representatives indicating the capacity in which they are signing.
6. PREFERRED APPLICANTS ARE TO NOTE THAT ANY SECURITIES ALLOTTED TO THEM WILL BE RECORDED BY THE MSE IN THE MSE ACCOUNT QUOTED ON THIS APPLICATION FORM EVEN IF THE DETAILS OF SUCH MSE ACCOUNT NUMBER, AS HELD BY THE CSD OF THE MSE, DIFFER FROM ANY OR ALL OF THE DETAILS APPEARING OVERLEAF. A SEPARATE REQUEST BY THE APPLICANT TO CHANGE THESE DETAILS AS RECORDED AT THE MSE, WILL HAVE TO BE AFFECTED.
7. Where a decision to invest is taken by a third party authorised to transact on behalf of the Applicant (a "decision maker") such as an individual that holds a power of attorney to trade on the Applicant's account or applications under a discretionary account, details of the decision maker need to be included in Panel C.
8. Where an Applicant quotes an MSE account number which is held subject to usufruct, both the bare owner/s and the usufructuary/ies are to sign the Application Form.
9. Applications must be for a minimum subscription of 3,000 Offer Shares and thereafter in multiples of 200 Offer Shares.
10. The Offer Period will open at 08:30 hours on 4 November 2024, and will close at 16:00 hours on 29 November 2024, or earlier in case of over-subscription. Completed Application Forms are to be delivered to any of the Authorised Financial Intermediaries listed in Annex I of the Securities Note during regular office hours. Remittances by post are made at the risk of the Applicant and the Company disclaims all responsibility for any such remittances not being received by the date of closing of the subscription lists. If any Application is not accepted after the closure of the subscription lists or is accepted for fewer Offer Shares than those applied for, the monies equivalent to the number of Offer Shares not being accepted will be returned by direct credit into the bank account specified in Panel E.
11. Dividends, if any, will be credited to the bank account indicated in Panel E or as otherwise amended by the shareholder.
12. The Company reserves the right to refuse any Application which appears to be in breach of the Terms and Conditions of the Share Offer as contained in the Prospectus dated 31 October 2024.
13. By completing and delivering an Application Form you (as the Applicant/s) acknowledge that:
 - a. the Company or its duly appointed agents including the CSD and the Registrar, may process the personal data that you provide in the Application Form in accordance with the Data Protection Act (Cap. 586 of the laws of Malta) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)(EU) 2016/679 as amended from time to time;
 - b. the Company may process such personal data for all purposes necessary for and related to the Offer Shares applied for; and
